

Let us accept others;

let us accept
that there is a fitting

variety,

that this person is
different,

that this person
thinks about things
in this way or that

that within
one faith

we can think about things differently...

Uniformity kills life.

The life of the Church is variety,
and when we want to impose uniformity
on everyone,
we kill the
gifts of the Holy Spirit.

Pope Francis

Let us accept others;

let us accept
that there is a fitting

variety,

that this person is
different,

that this person
thinks about things
in this way or that

that within
one faith

we can think about things differently...

Uniformity kills life.

The life of the Church is variety,
and when we want to impose uniformity
on everyone,
we kill the
gifts of the Holy Spirit.

Pope Francis

Let us accept others;

let us accept
that there is a fitting

variety,

that this person is
different,

that this person
thinks about things
in this way or that

that within
one faith

we can think about things differently...

Uniformity kills life.

The life of the Church is variety,
and when we want to impose uniformity
on everyone,
we kill the
gifts of the Holy Spirit.

Pope Francis